

Okehampton Street Pastors - Data Protection Regulation Consent Form

Your privacy is important to us and we would like to communicate with you about Okehampton Street Pastors and its activities. We need your consent before using any personal information about you that you may have supplied to us. This may include information such as your name or your personal contact details.

Please see the enclosed privacy notice which sets how we use your personal data.

We would also like to stay in touch with you and/or manage your relationship with us. We may contact you to keep you informed about the work that Okehampton Street Pastors is doing locally, or that of other initiatives in the wider Street Pastor network, including news, events, meetings, or other activities that you may be interested in participating in. These communications may also sometimes appear on our website or in printed electronic form (including social media).

Where you do not consent, we will not be able to use your personal data to contact you, except in certain limited circumstances, such as where we are required to do so by law, or to protect members of the public from serious harm.

You can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us via the contact details given in this letter.

If you consent to being contacted by Okehampton Street Pastors, please indicate in the boxes below giving your consent and then specify how we can contact you.
